CORINTH.—We very much fear that Beauregard will escape yet from Gen. Hardee.

We copy a statement this morning from the Nashville Union, from which it would seem that as early as last Tuesday there were indications that the rebels were preparing to evacuate; and our dispatches this morning state that Thursday the rattling of arms and noise of whistles in the direction of Memphis indicated that they were retreating upon Memphis, possibly towards Grand Junction, as the Union says, and thence, leaving Memphis to its fate, to go on towards New Orleans or Mobile.

It was our idea of Gen. Pope's new movement, that he was to be pushed westward from Pittsburg Landing to take possession of the railroad between Corinth and Grand Junction, or still further west to prevent Beauregard's escape to Corinth if he did not prevent it entirely, but as he only arrived on Tuesday and the roads were in horrible condition, it would be almost impossible for him to intercept them in time. Of course Beauregard had intimated of what Pope was to do, and when he would arrive, and has taken time by the forelock. If he has deserted Corinth he will hardly go to Memphis, because from that point he would not possibly escape; he would be more likely to push on for Jackson, Miss., in the hope of being able to make a stand there. We sincerely trust he will not be permitted to escape from Corinth, but he may have done so already. If Pope, reinforced at Pittsburg, pushed on immediately to Pocahontas, distant about 20 or 25 miles, and on the M. & C. R. R., he may have been able to intercept their retreat in time, as it is probable, notwithstanding the terrible condition of the roads, that he could make that point in two days. We have not expected a battle at Corinth, neither did we look to seeing Beauregard escape.

GEORGE N. SAUNDERS AND THE LOUISVILLE GUN.—We copy from the Nashville Union a letter written by the notorious Gen. N. Saunders, dated Louisville, June 21, 1861, in which mention is made of a wrought iron gun, being at that time manufactured in this city.

As the "Union" was and probably our readers will be curious to know, "who" was this Louisville canon maker who was making rebel guns, "we" will undertake to enlighten them as far as we can.

Philip Mullane, an old citizen of Louisville, and a blacksmith, manufactured a gun such as described by Sanders, about the time the rebellion began and went on to Washington to secure a patent therefor. He wished to sell it to the Government the right, but as the law forbids the Government holding patent rights he returned to this city with out securing "paper patent," although the importance of the improvement was, we understand, admitted by the commissioners.

He remained here until about the first of June last, when he and his two sons, Phillip and Dennis, went to Nashville for the purpose (as their friends understood) of manufacturing the gun for the rebel army.

These particulars we have from one well acquainted with the parties. The Sanders letter is no doubt genuine.

FAITH CORINTH.—The Nashville Union of yesterday learns by a gentleman, who left Pittsburg Landing on the 22d, that there was every indication that the rebels are evacuating Corinth, and that they are sending away all their heavy ordnance, &c., to Grand Junction, forty miles distant. Our soldiers are in the highest spirits, and eager for another fight. Beauregard may be considered as bagged already. The rebel displayed the most revolting barbarity in their attack on Sunday morning, when they surprised Gen. Grant's force. They cut the throats of sick soldiers as they lay in their tents, and mutilated their prisoners and unarmed men with their heavy canes knives! They acted with all the fiendish malignity of savages.

Mrs. Belle Benson returns her sincere thanks to the citizens of Middletown, Ky., and vicinity.—Mrs. Harney, Mrs. Mills, Miss Thorne, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. A. D. Stapp, Mrs. Shellabarger, Mrs. Brush, Mrs. Perine, also to Ed. Brizley, Ed. Hampshire, Levi Arterburn, Wm. Waters, B. Poultier, D. Powell, B. S. Waters, Peter Arterburn, C. Brankham, and the proprietors of the Davis House, of Middletown, for a nice supply of hospital stores, for the sick and wounded soldiers.

INFORMATION WANTED.—John H. Burton, of Garrard county, Kentucky, of Captain Haskley's Company, First Kentucky cavalry, started about two weeks since for his regiment, near Nashville. He was taken sick, and supposed to have been brought to this city. Any information concerning him, if left at the Giley House, on Market street, between Brook and Frist, will be thankfully received by his father, Alfred Burton.

LOUISVILLE REBELS.—A letter was received in the city yesterday from young Bishop, familiarly known as "Billy Bishop," stating that himself and Prior Newnan, also of this city, were still in the land of the living. We did not learn whether they were wounded or not.

POUNCE PROCEEDINGS.—Saturday, April 26 George Kider, charged with stealing $100 from Mr. M. Munro, $200 for three months.

McCarroll, 310, Jefferson street, expects another large supply of Will Hays' "Gangeline," to-morrow.

ASSASSINATION IN BEECHGROVE COUNTY.—On the 11th inst., the Richmond Messenger says, two men living on Fanchon creek, a tributary of the middle fork of the Kentucky river, were taken out of their houses and killed. Their names were Alexander Harrel, Jr., and Edwin Combs. They were tied and Harrel was killed on the spot; Combs got loose at one time, broke to run, but was shot three times and died two days afterwards. He charged the murder of himself and Harrel on three men named Rose, Bailey, and McIntosh, who have since been arrested. The parties killed and those charged with their murder were all bad men, thieves and bandits. Rose, it is said, pretends that certain prominent citizens of the county, heretofore deemed respectable, connived at the tragedy. No politics involved in the affair, all being secessionists.

—Stone-wall Jackson is still retreating before Banks, who is but a few miles north of his position, while Milroy and Schenck are but a few miles to the west, both armies pushing open him. He will be driven to the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad at Lynchburg, in the hope of being able to reach Richmond before it falls; or, failing in that, will be compelled to run down to Raleigh, N. C., provided he can do so before Burnside occupied that point. As for coming West from Lynchburg, it will do him no good. He might reach Knoxville, Tenn., but it would only be in time to find that Gen. Morgan, at Cumberland Gap, had attacked Gen. Smith, at Knoxville, and routed him. To tell the truth, Jackson is in a net, and it will be only by a miracle if he gets out.

—If Beauregard has escaped from Corinth, as seems now to be the case, it will be with an entirely disheartened and demoralized army, and he will find it the most difficult undertaking he ever had on hand, to make that army stand at any point. If he cannot stand at Corinth with all its national and artificial defenses, he cannot stand anywhere else, and will be driven from pillow to post till he reaches "the last ditch," or is bagged; but we anticipated having him bagged at Corinth, and don't like to be disappointed.

—The entertainment advertised for Tuesday evening, at Masonic Temple, will be of the richest kind. It will exceed the similar entertainments which so delighted us a few weeks ago. The only objection we have is that the enjoyment of the spectators will be too great. It is a great luxury to give money for charitable purposes, and it is a great luxury to see such beautiful representations; but a combination of the two is almost too good for sinful humanity.

—The following soldiers of Kentucky regiments have died at Simon's general hospital, Mound City: Lewis Ward, Company A, Thirteenth regiment, on the 15th instant; Colby Shread, Company I, Seventeenth regiment, and Joseph Loser, Company C, Sixth regiment, on the 20th; J. D. B. Dews, Company E, Seventeenth regiment, on the 19th; and Harvey Browning, a prisoner of Company D, Fourth Kentucky rebel regiment.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—The continued additions to this large congregation, from week to week, is encouraging to its members and the religious public. The pastor, Elder D. P. Hendrie, will preach this morning, at 11 o'clock. Subject, "Christian Partnership." Services at 3 o'clock p.m., and preaching at night. Seats always free, and the public invited.

—We learn from the Paris Citizen that Capt. Henry C. McLeod, of the Sixth Kentucky regiment, son of Mr. George McLeod, of that county, who was wounded in the recent terrible conflict at Pittsburg Landing, is rapidly recovering, at Versailles, and will soon be able to take the field.

—Mrs. N. B. Smith gratefully acknowledges the receipt from Mrs. H. T. Jones and other loyal ladies of Kirkville, Ky., for hospital uses, one oak blackberry wine, one jug better, one large box of sundries, which have been placed in the hands of the Sanitary Commission.

SPLENDID TABACCO.—At the Ninth street warehouse yesterday was sold one hoghead of magnificent tobacco, at the very high price of twenty-three dollars per hundred. This hoghead was raised by A. J. Richardson, of Hart county, and bought by Muselman & Son, manufacturers, of this city.

—We, the Union men of the town of La Grange, have heard that it is reported, in some parts of the country, by Mr. F. M. Barber, one of the candidates for County Judge, that our townsmen, T. A. Rodman, now a candidate for County Judge, for this county, is not a good Union man. We take pleasure in saying to the people of the county that we know him to be a good, loyal Union man, and have always found him to be so, even since the rebellion broke out, and are sorry that such an impression should be circulated by any person:

"Thou hast gone before us, our brother, To the spirit land, to death."

5. That as an honest tribute to his memory we wear his name, and that we are sorry to hear that the resolution of motion to his family, and published in the daily papers.

—Mr. Thomas L. Martin, of this city, member of Company H, Louisville Legion, died yesterday from wounds received at Pittsburg Landing. His funeral will take place this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, from the Eighth street M. E. Church.

—Lieut. Drayton, who died at Paducah, and Lieut. Lee, at Carrollton, were reported as rebels. This is an error. They were members of the United States Army, fought gallantly, and lost their lives in defense of the Union.

—Cotton continues to arrive freely in Nashville, according to the Union of yesterday; and we may say that it continues to arrive pretty freely at this port. The Undine brought up yesterday 117 bales.

—We are requested to give notice that the anniversary exercises of the Sunday School of St. John's Church will take place this (Sunday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Seats free to all.

TOBACCO FACTORY.—We call the attention of manufacturers to the advertisement in our columns this morning, of a tobacco factory for rent at Munfordville, Ky. A good location.

—A amorous likeness was picked up on the street, Friday night, and left at this office. The owner can get it by applying at the clerk's desk and paying for this notice.

—Read the advertisement of Erskine, in our advertising columns. He very recently opened his office, and has sold two fine pieces already.

—The steamer May Duke will arrive at Jeffersonville to-day, with 150 sick Indians, from the hospitals of Union Ladies' Aid Society, Bridgeport, Kentucky.

—Mr. Benjamin South, of the firm of Lent, South & Shipman, of New Albany, died in that city Friday evening. Mr. S. was an old and highly esteemed citizen.

THANKS.—We are under great obligations to Mr. O. J. Carr, of Adams Express, for Nashville paper of yesterday.

—At Gay's China Palace, corner Fourth and Green streets, the finest article of coal oil in the city, at low rates.

OUTRAGE AND TUMULT.—Yesterday afternoon as a sick soldier was walking up Market street, a dog stood in his path, he put out his foot to push it away, when a big rebel who stood near struck the soldier on the side of the head, knocked him down and then kicked him. This fact coming to the ears of a man in the markethouse, he started after the rebel, when the latter got up, but was brought down by a blow on the back of the head; his assailant would have followed the matter up, but that the rebel was picked up and carried to jail. Served him right. Any one who would strike a sick man is not too good to strike his own mother, and ought to be kicked out of town.

HEADQUARTERS SEVENTH DIVISION,
ARMY OF THE OHIO,
CUMBERLAND FORT, April 18, 1862.

Editors—Democrat.—Gentlemen: Please call attention to the fact that passes to citizens to enter camps in this division are not granted.

A knowledge of this may save many persons, who have friends in the regiments here, the time and expenses of a trip to this point, as we are so far from Burnside occupied that point. As for coming West from Lynchburg, it will do him no good. He might reach Knoxville, Tenn., but it would only be in time to find that Gen. Morgan, at Cumberland Gap, had attacked Gen. Smith, at Knoxville, and routed him. To tell the truth, Jackson is in a net, and it will be only by a miracle if he gets out.

In the Blood, for the life and health of the body depends upon the purity of the blood.

If the blood is poisoned, the body drags out a miserable existence. These medicines are unequalled for curing

of ulcers, Diseases, Old Sores, Rheumatism, Gout, Rheumatic, Sore Complaint, Fever and Ague, Female Complaints, Epilepsies, St. Anthony's Fire, Eruptions, Scrofulous Consumption, etc.

One person writes, her daughter was cured in nine years' standing, and St. Vitus' dance of two years.

Another writes, his son was cured after his flesh had almost rotted away.

The doctors pronounced the case incurable.

Another was cured of Fever and Ague after trying every medicine in his reach.

Another was cured of Fever Sore which had existed fourteen years.

Another of Rheumatism of eight years. Cases innumerable of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, which could be mentioned in which the Dr. and Pills are the most active and thorough pills that can be introduced.

Work like a Charm.

The Blood Pills

They act directly upon the Liver, exciting that organ to such an extent as that the disease does not relapse into its former condition, which is not apt to be the case with a purgative pill.

They are really a

Blood and Liver Pill, which, in conjunction with the Blood Purifier,

will cure all the aforesaid diseases, and of themselves, will relieve and cure

Headache, Costiveness,

Colic Pains, Cholera Morbus,

Indigestion, Pain in the Bowels, Dizziness, etc.

Try these medicines, and you will never regret it.

Ask your neighbors, who have used them, and they will say they are

Good Medicines,

and you should try them before going for a physician.

Get a Pamphlet or Almanac of my local agent, and read the certificates, and if you have ever doubted you will be spared to give satisfaction.

A DISTINGUISHED PRISONER — General C. B. Conrad, of Gilmer county, Va., has been brought to Wheeling as a prisoner of war.

The intelligent says:

Mr. Conrad was a member of the Richmond Convention which passed the ordinance of secession, and stood side by side with the J. C. L. Union men of Northwestern Virginia, refusing to consent to vote for the ordinance. He returned home, however, and Governor Letcher made him a Brigadier General. That seems to have been a fatal bait, and ever since he has been recognized as a secessionist. A work or so ago he came to the Federal officers at Sutton, in Braxton county, and gave himself up, and Major Darr had him brought here, that his case might be investigated.
